Story

The third picture book story about the popular meerkat character Tafiti

A wonderful story about arguing, sharing and reconciling...

This carefully told story shows the youngest ones that arguing happens. Even with your best friend. And that agreeing and getting along again afterwards is most important.

Tafiti and Bristles are very best friends.

One night a star falls down on earth, the meerkat and the red river hog are very excited and run to the crash site. Bristles discovers the star in the high savannah grass before Tafiti does, but Tafiti is faster and catches the shining luminary. For Bristles that's nothing but unfair because he found it first. But the meerkat doesn't want to give it to his friend and a big argument starts!

Julia Boehme

Julia Boehme studied literature and music and afterwards worked as an editor for a children's TV programme. One day she remembered that as a child she had wanted to become a writer. Right away she decided that from now on she was going to be a writer exclusively. Ever since she is creating new stories for television and writes children's books.
