Story

Dagmar Geisler - A specialist in emotional education for the little ones

- Raising awareness and moving forward
- Approaching difficult, yet important topics in a sensitive manner

A collection of four titles about Coping with Anger, Siblings, Arguing and Less is More.

Perfect to find a way for being aware and talking about all kinds of feelings like anger, fear, happiness or joy!

By the time children reach kindergarten age the issue of social interaction becomes increasingly important for them. Closely connected with this is the awareness of one's body, dealing with their own feelings as well as perceiving themselves and responding to feelings of others.

The titles provide parents, educators and teachers with materials and guidance for different age groups in order to communicate these often difficult issues.

Dagmar Geisler, was born in 1958 in Siegen, studied drawing in Wiesbaden and now lives in Franconian Switzerland. She has been writing and illustrating for children and the young for over 25 years. Her educational picture books address recent and sensitive issues, providing useful preventive measures with excitement and humour from an educational perspective. With her books, she accompanies children in their social-emotional development and encourages talking together about feelings, difficult situations and body awareness.
