

Dagmar Geisler

Safe Child, Happy Parent Safe On the Net! How Do I Protect Myself from Digital Abuse and Fraud?

durchgehend farbig illustriert von Nikolai Renger

2nd edition 10/01/2024

48 Pages, 17.5 x 24.5 cm

ISBN 978-3-7432-1374-6

Hardcover

12.95 € (D)

incl. VAT, shipping extra

Rights sold:

English (worldwide), Polish

Story

How to surf the net safely!

What can I show on the Internet and what is better not to show? Can I believe everything I see or read online? How do I deal with violent videos? And what do I do if someone harasses me online? Mirja, Leon, Till and Aylin not only experience what can go wrong when using the internet, but also reveal how to navigate the internet safely and protect yourself from abuse and other problematic content.

With lots of tips and examples, this book is an ideal conversation starter for adults and children and is also a practical guide.

- Promotes the emotional development of primary school children
- Important non-fiction books on topics that concern children in the lower grades and their parents

- Complicated questions simply answered in easy-to-understand texts
- Also suitable for first-time readers
- Detailed colourful illustrations supplement all the important facts throughout.
- Gives primary school children concrete help and tips on how to use the Internet safely
- Provides helpful conversation starters for adults and children as well as for educational work
- Includes a helpful overview of advice centres

More titles by this author

Oh Dear, We Have a Fight!

Safe Child, Happy Parent
My Body Belongs to Me - Also in Sports!

Safe Child, Happy Parent
How Do I Use the Internet for School?

When I Get Sick: About
Becoming Ill and Feeling Better