Story

It is the year 1347 A.D. Important visitors are to come to the bishop's court in Wuerzburg. But while everyone is busy with the preparations for the feast given in honour of the legates, the bishop very closely escapes a deadly attack.

Against a backdrop of historic events, children from various epochs solve mysteries. Whether it is a theft in a monastery, a gang of confidence tricksters in Barbarossa's time, or a plot centered on the payment of Varus' legionaries - our "History Mysteries" bring the Middle Ages, ancient Egypt and the Roman Empire to life. The detailed appendix provides information about the epoch in question. "History Mysteries" make history fun!

Harald Parigger

Harald Parigger was born in Würzburg in 1953 where he also went to university. He finished university with a PhD in history. Afterwards he became a teacher, then worked in the "House of History" in Munich and now is headmaster of a grammar school in Bavaria. Apart from children's fiction he writes crime stories.
