- Written in an exciting thriller style
- Winston shares teenager Kira's everyday life
- Two detectives solve gripping crime cases
- Teenage life narrated from the perspective of a cat

Poor Winston – things are not turning out the way he'd hoped. He had been looking forward to spending the holidays with a 'real' family: now he has an upset stomach, and he's so sick that he has to go to the vet's. Then comes another shock: Winston has been poisoned! Is somebody out to get the cat detective? This smells like a new case! And so Winston and his two-legged friends Kira, Tom and Pauli set out to solve the mystery of who is behind the malicious attack. They don't have much time, however, as it's not long before somebody else ends up in hospital with food poisoning...

Frauke Scheunemann

Frauke Scheunemann was born in 1969 in Düsseldorf, and qualified as a lawyer. She started by working on a placement with the North German Radio, and ended up as a journalist and press spokesperson. Since 2002 she has been a freelance author and writes very successful novels with her sister Wiebke Lorenz under the Anne Hertz pseudonym. The entire Anne Hertz output amounts to one million books. In 2010 Scheunemann's first solo novel appeared, called Dackelblick, which was an instant bestseller and became the first volume in a much-loved series. Frauke Scheunemann is married and lives in Hamburg with her husband and four children, and Elmo the dog.
