Story

Winston's last case

- The grand finale
- A feline thriller with a twist in the tail

Winston the cat and his beloved Odette are on holiday at the pony farm. Lovely, thinks Winston – a little peace and quiet at last. But appearances can be deceiving. Kira, of course, is delighted by the horses and more or less forgets about Winston. She is particularly keen on the cute little pony Bulli. And Bulli, much to Winston's chagrin, is particularly keen on him, following him around wherever he goes. Winston can't understand what it is the children love so much about this blasted pony! Until, that is, he uncovers a big secret... With a happy ending guaranteed!

a placement with the North German Radio, and ended up as a journalist and press spokesperson. Since 2002 she has been a freelance author and writes very successful novels with her sister Wiebke Lorenz under the Anne Hertz pseudonym. The entire Anne Hertz output amounts to one million books. In 2010 Scheunemann's first solo novel appeared, called Dackelblick, which was an instant bestseller and became the first volume in a much-loved series. Frauke Scheunemann is married and lives in Hamburg with her husband and four children, and Elmo the dog.
