Story

Play football like the famous!

Alexij from Ukraine is desperate to go the Champions League game between Dynamo Kiev and Bayern München. In the USA, Chris has to decide between Fußball and football. Yildiray from Turkey has footballer's legs – but is that all he needs to become a professional? And Mona is furious because in Tunisia girls are not allowed to play football. Their lives are so different, but they all have one thing in common: they are all mad about football!

All over the world children play football and adore their favourite players. In 2006 guests from many different nations have come to Germany for the Football World Cup, but what is like where they come from?

Renowned German authors tell new original, exciting and informative stories about children from 15 countries: about their triumphs, defeats and other football experiences!
