Story

- For pre-school-kids without experiences in reading on their own
- Clearly structured text
- Nouns are replaced with pictures to be 'read out' by the children
- Extra-large primer font
- For reading aloud and reading together
- Sense of achievement guaranteed!

Psst! Princess Ella has a secret she only wants to share with her best friend. And Princess Victoria secretly brought all the animals from the castle park up to her room. It is way to cold for them outside, she thinks. But will her mother, the Queen, feel the same?

Reading Lions – The Picture Mouse Concept:

The Picture Mouse series features fun stories about lovable characters and exciting settings. All the nouns in the text are replaced by little pictures, which children aged 5+ will be able to recognise and name whilst having the book read aloud to them or reading along with an adult. It's a great way of getting young children to read their first whole book all by themselves!

Anna Taube

Anna Taube, born 1976, has studied German and English language and literature. She initially worked at a publisher of travel guides in Cologne. Later she primarily focused on writing. She now works as a freelance author and translator. Just like Finn, she doesn't like cauliflower very much, and she loves the sea, old pirate stories and apple pie. Anna Taube lives in Nuremberg with her family.
