Story

Bristles is so good at painting, thinks Tafiti. He wishes he could paint too. Then he has an idea: he will simply pretend to be Bristles for the day! "But if you're me, who am I going to be?" asks Bristles. He soon decides to take on the role of His Majesty King Kofi the lion. And all the other savannah animals join in the fun too!

- The second picture book story about the popular meerkat character Tafiti
- Over 15,000 copies of the first picture book have been sold
- Children love role play!

Julia Boehme

Julia Boehme studied literature and music and afterwards worked as an editor for a children's TV programme. One day she remembered that as a child she had wanted to become a writer. Right away she decided that from now on she was going to be a writer exclusively. Ever since she is creating new stories for television and writes children's books.
