Story

The Prequel of the exciting feel-good fantasy

8-year-old Ruby Fairygale lives on a small island near the west coast of Ireland. After school, she always helps her grandmother, who works as a veterinarian. But the two of them have a big secret: they know that there are not only animals on the island, but also magical mythical creatures that need their help.

What happens in Volume 2:

Ruby finally has a best friend! Together with Bri, everything is much more fun. A pony race, for example. The winner gets a bag of candy from Kathleen's bakery. But as soon as they gallop away, Ruby discovers a little leprechaun with burn blisters. Then a fairy with scorched hair shows up – another burn? Something's not right! And indeed: a baby dragon with a cold has lost its way in the human world and sets Farmer Orin's barn on fire with its cough. Bri rescues the animals while Ruby has an idea: she makes cough drops for the dragon in Kathleen's bakery. The candies cure the little dragon's cough and the fairy brings him back to fairyland to his parents.

- Prequel of the successful children's book series "Ruby Fairygale"
- Chapter book stories, perfect for Story Time and readers aged 7 and up
- Written by Marlene Jablonski ("Liliane Susewind" Chapter book series), based on a synopsis by Kira

Gembri

- Strong female protagonist and lovingly developed characters, with a high sympathy factor
- With many atmospheric illustrations

Kira Gembri

Kira Gembri was born in Vienna in 1990. She remained loyal to this beautiful city after completing her degree in literature. She shares her love of books with her two children who firmly believe in fairytales. Mythical creatures don't live with her by the way – but she does have a cat who was definitely a goblin in his former life.

Marlene Jablonski

Marlene Jablonski was born in 1978 in Gdansk where she lived and went to school until she was ten. She moved to Düsseldorf with her family in 1988. After graduating from high school, she worked in an advertising agency for a few months before she began working as a freelance writer in 2000.
