Story

The perfect combination of excitement, fantasy and romance

The Magic of the Elements series is the perfect combination of excitement, fantasy and romance. A must for any romantasy fan! Each book tells the story of a different character.

In the grand finale of The Magic of the Elements, first novel's hero Kira has to save the magic world from breaking apart.

Kira wants to live a normal life: finish school, study and spend time with her boyfriend Tim. However, Kira is everything but normal – even in the magical world her abilities are unique. When the magical bubbles are thrown out of balance, her powers are the last hope to assure the future of magic.

- Successful self-publishing German author with a large fan base
