It's striking midnight when a little cuddly toy lion climbs out of a box in the Shop for nearly Everything. 24 days to go until he needs to have found someone who becomes fond of him and loves the lion. Then he'll be alive forever!

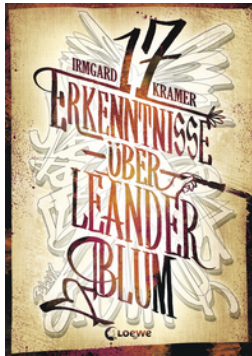

The grumpy rocker Richie buys the Christmas lion because he doesn't find anything else in the shop. What he doesn't know yet is that he has entered into a magical contract and the lion gives everything he's got to win Richie's heart. Even his new friend Lenja and her family help to make a Christmas miracle come true...

Irmgard Kramer

Irmgard Kramer was born in 1969 in Vorarlberg and grew up in an old house that felt alive. After nineteen years of being a primary school teacher, she threw away her chalks and now lives as a freelance author among mountains, cows and cheeses in Bregenzerwald. She writes stories for young and older readers, and for magazines.
