What a great day! Together with his father, Mats visits the football stadium and suddenly finds himself right in front of the keeper of his favorite team. Till gives all he has in an important games as well. Hopefully, he can score the big goal and make his teammates proud.

THILO

THILO spent the first 20 years of his life in the children's corner of his parents' bookshop. He then travelled in Africa, Asia and Central America before successfully touring with friends as a cabaret trio. Today THILO lives in Mainz with his family and writes stories and scripts for TV programmes.
