What happens in Volume 2:

Secretly, Chris sneaks out of the house at night. It's unbearable. Since his seventeenth birthday is getting closer and closer, his mother Carina hardly lets him out of the house. She is constantly afraid that something might happen. But what could happen to him? After all, he does have magic. But when Chris is put into a deep sleep, all his magical powers don't help him either. And while outside the witch's tower the thorny vines grow higher and higher, Mara is the only one who is really looking for Chris. Mara, the girl with the colorful hair that actually hates Chris. And yet she is fascinated by him.
