Story

Tatütata - the fire department helps where it can

Olli the dog who fell into a river, or the lost raccoon in Ömer's attic. And when children discover a fire in the forest, they also call 112 - of course!

With the Bilderm Maus series, children ages 5 and up (preschool) can playfully learn to read with pictures: each noun is replaced by a picture. Give your child a Bilderm Maus book and lay the foundation for successful learning to read.

- Strong theme for boys and girls: Fire department
- Proven concept: Picture Mouse has been successfully helping children learn to read for more than 25 years.

- Over 4 million copies sold in Germany, Austria and Switzerland
- Ideal for reading beginners from preschool, for reading aloud and reading along
- Co-developed and recommended by educators
- Pictures replace words
- Varied and exciting stories
- Each book is tailored to the interests of preschool children
- Simple, short sentences in large primer font optimally support the learning-to-read process

Henriette Wich

Henriette Wich was born in Landshut in 1970 and she grew up with six siblings and three cats. For as long as she was a child, she has been enjoying coming up with stories. After she got her degree in German language studies and Philosophy she has worked in the editorial department of children's books publishers. She has been working as a freelance author of children's and juvenile books for several years now. 11 nephews and nieces provide her with enough material for her books.
