Story

Their past is full of shadows. But together they can shine.

Model Livia Russo enjoys her jet-set life and would prefer never to return to her hometown. But after the death of her father, she has to face the shadows of her past. The only ray of hope is the voice of gondolier Luca, who secretly dreams of a career as an opera singer. Without further ado, Livia posts a video of him online, which goes viral overnight and gets met with resistance, especially from Luca's father. Livia, of all people, offers her help and doesn't realize the feelings it awakens in both of them. Until her inheritance is suddenly threatened and she has to decide: Does she fight for a cause she never wanted? Or does she move on, leaving Venice and thus Luca behind for good.

Experience how Venice turns friendship into love!

Marina Neumeier's concluding volume in her New Adult series is full of courage and hope. "Sense of Love" is not only a declaration of love to music, but rather a reminder that happiness is often found in unexpected moments.
