These books have desperately been waiting for a child to save them. Is Becky, who moves into this castle together with her father, the one of all kids to rescue the dusted stories?

9 ½ year old Becky can't believe this is going to happen: this castle simply is amazing. It even has a huge library! A library of forgotten books. But why should she be interested in reading? Soon, she discovers that the library is occupied... by magical creatures hidden in the books. These stories seem to be alive! And this secret shall never be released to grown-ups. Luckily, Hugo and his dog Watson are around, Becky makes friends with them. Together with chipmunk Lotti, they decide to save these books.
