Story

Dagmar Geisler - A specialist in emotional education for the little ones

- Raising awareness and moving forward
- Approaching difficult, yet important topics in a sensitive manner

A collection of four titles about Coping with Anger, Siblings, Arguing and Less is More.

Perfect to find a way for being aware and talking about all kinds of feelings like anger, fear, happiness or joy!

By the time children reach kindergarten age the issue of social interaction becomes increasingly important for them. Closely connected with this is the awareness of one's body, dealing with their own feelings as well as perceiving themselves and responding to feelings of others.

The titles provide parents, educators and teachers with materials and guidance for different age groups in order to communicate these often difficult issues.

Dagmar Geisler

Dagmar Geisler was born in 1958 in Siegen and studied drawing in Wiesbaden. After graduating in 1984, she worked as graphic designer and illustrator for several publishing houses and broadcasting companies. In 1987 Dagmar Geisler illustrated her first book for children, the “Leselöwen-Quatschgeschichten” by Manfred Mai. From now on she focused on drawing comics and illustrations for children’s books, which have been awarded several times. For some years now she also writes successful children’s books. Her educational picture books deal with recent and sensitive issues. With her sensitive stories Dagmar Geisler succeeds very well to transport useful preventive measures not only from an educational perspective, but also with a certain amount of excitement and humor. Today, Dagmar Geisler lives with her family in the Franconian Switzerland.
