Story

A second chance for the first love.

Berlin. Two years earlier: Lucy meets Gregor at a writing workshop. Gregor, the loner. Gregor, the writer. Gregor, who with every word he writes, writes his way into Lucy's heart. But after the summer she doesn't hear a single word from him again.

Cologne. Now: suddenly he is standing in front of her again. As if it wasn't bad enough that Gregor has moved to Cologne for his Master in Creative Writing, Lucy has to host the university podcast with him, of all people. And that is such an important step on the way to her own women's magazine. What she knows: Gregor still has the same attraction for her. What she doesn't know: the real reason why he has come back into her life ...

In her incomparably poetic way, SPIEGEL bestselling author Gabriella Santos de Lima writes about toxic (non-) relationships, pressure to perform and how important open communication is – whether in a podcast or in love – in the prelude to her new New Adult trilogy.

- Touching second-chance romance in times of TikTok, ghosting and co.
- Directly from the Gen Z-world
- bestselling author with a large social media community
