Betrayed, persecuted and abandoned to their fate

In her new trilogy Ursula Poznanski presents a convincing dystopian setting and a thriller-type plot, and she has created a well-thought out world set in a horrifyingly convincing future. The whole story is bursting with original ideas, and features a totally authentic and endearing heroine. The author keeps her readers guessing in a masterly way with a series of unexpected twists and turns, and piles on the tension with each gripping, beautifully written page.

Skilfully, Ursula Poznanski lays false trails, thereby –involving both her characters and her readers in a baffling adventure. This splendidly confusing narrative is a –dystopian thriller that is packed with surprises and tackles the themes of trust and manipulation with elegance and imagination.
