- The Monster from the Blue Planet

Suddenly, during a moonlit night, a little dragon jumps out of Philipp’s book – he is fleeing from a knight. But Philipp has no time to wonder – as soon as he tries to rescue the poor dragon he shrinks, too! How do you fight a mean knight when you’re as big as a thumb?

Stories of dragons, monsters and faraway planets show kids that friendship and bravery are more important than being big.

Cornelia Funke

Cornelia Funke was born 1958 in Dorsten, Westphalia. After university she worked for three years as a social worker in an educational project, where she met children from difficult backgrounds. Additionally she studied book illustration at Hamburg State College of Design. When she started writing children's books she illustrated her own stories. At the age of 28 she became a fulltime writer of children's books and is today one of the best known and most successful Germany writers. She currently lives in Los Angeles with her children.
