What happens in Volume 2:

It's a big day for the space station: the first beaming is about to take place - and Ned and Anna get to be a part of it. The Örks, the Schlingons, the Ypsilons and the Grantari are to be beamed to their home planets – and at first everything goes smoothly. Until suddenly the connection of a processor is cut...Was that an accident or intentional? But luckily Ned can intervene in time – and everything goes according to plan.

But at the big party afterwards he can't really enjoy himself. What if the power interruption was intentional? And then Pimm makes a strange observation at night. . . and Ned's suspicion seems to be confirmed...

Together with their alien friends, Ned and Anna find out that someone from a vicious alien species, a slime monster, has gained access to the beam center. He's from the forbidden planet and is apparently meant to spy on and sabotage the beam center. Luckily Ned and Anna find out about him in time - and are able to prevent the worst at the last minute. . .
