Story

On her 10th birthday, Fiona realizes that she has a special gift: she can hear other people's thoughts! But all she can make out are only individual words, which she has to put together to make sense of them. What a good thing, then, that Fiona is a real little spy... Fiona's beloved cat Beany and other pets from the neighbourhood are abducted! Together with her best friend Leonie, Fiona starts to hunt for the evil animal kidnappers...

Concept: - new series for first readers - more colourful illustrations than in the average children's book - simple layout and large fonts help children to train their reading proficiency - strong, adorable protagonists for identification

„This vividly written story with an exciting plot is especially suitable for early readers. Absolutely recommendable!“ Reader's voice

Bettina Belitz

Bettina Belitz was born in Heidelberg in 1973, and very soon fell under the spell of the book shelves. It wasn't long before reading wasn't enough – no, she had to scribble her own stories down, too. After university, Bettina Belitz worked as a journalist until she was able to devote herself to her youthful enthusiasms. Nowadays, she lives surrounded by horses, sheep, cats and chickens in a village of 400 inhabitants in Westerwald, where she is inspired by nature and weather to write her novels.
