Story

In his own head 12-years-old Hugo is a genius. Full of confidence he sets out to enlighten the world with his clever insights and to impress the onlookers - especially his classmate Viola - with his athletic performances. Stumbling from one pitfall into the next this self-appointed super hero is one tough cookie. Neither the constant bullying by his elder sister nor the constant neglect by the girls from school who are simply taller (Hugo secretly calls them giraffes) get him down. However difficult it gets, Hugo is never going to give up!

- Each volume a standalone story focusing on one topic e.g. sports, school, girls
- Witty comic-style illustrations supporting the text
- Authentic and understanding description of the world of a 12-year-old
- Author Sabine Zett is perfectly entitled to understand the mind of a 12-year-old as she has a son of the same age
- Easy to read as funny illustrations break up the text

Sabine Zett

Sabine Zett grew up in Westphalia. As a young student she enjoyed writing stories and wrote articles for a local newspaper. After graduation she has worked as a journalist for several years.

When her son and daughter were born, she began writing theatre and radio plays, and books for children.

She lives in the lower Rhine area together with her family.
