Story

Laura is horrified: her parents are going to move away from central Berlin to live in the sticks! The only ray of sunshine in all this is the Riding School, where she is allowed to help. The Riding Teacher has a son, who is pretty cute, too. But something is bothering him. Has he got girlfriend problems? Laura soon learns that life in the country is full of surprises.

For her part, Mia is thrilled when her parents buy a stud farm in the country. At last, she will be able to spend every free minute with her horses. But her favourite horse, Roxy, is shy and easily scared.

Fortunately, her neighbour Marco is able to help. They are getting on like a house on fire, when Marco suddenly totally snubs her. Then Roxy turns shy, too, and runs away...

- Two new, unpublished stories by Kathrin Siegel and Meike Haas
- Two sparky novels about horses, friendship and first love
- Ideal holiday reading for horse-mad girls
