Story

This picture encyclopaedia offers the perfect introduction to the world of knowledge! Large panoramic illustrations invite children to look and discover. Short non-fiction texts complete the illustrations and are ideal for reading aloud as well as individually. Topics of particular interest for pre-school and elementary school children are included: animals, vehicles, airspace, technology, nature, the earth, etc. Children and parents alike are invited to read on in the extensive encyclopaedic part: there are lots of interesting details to be discovered!

- first reference book for children aged 3+
- more than 60 topics for knowledge from A to Z
- visual conveyance of knowledge
- extensive glossary
